

THE NATION'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE DELIVERING ADDRESS ON SHIP SUBSIDY at joint session of the Sixty-seventh Congress at Washington. Congress is shown listening to President Harding as he laid the needs of the American Merchant Marine before the lawmakers. His message was carried throughout the country by radio.

WEST PHILADELPHIA HIGH DRAMATICS. Emma Hall, Jane Umstead, Eleanor Choat and Emma Embry, to appear in vaudeville given by the Students' Association, tomorrow and Saturday.

AN INTERESTING VIEW OF THE NEW PHILADELPHIA & READING RAILWAY BRIDGE now being constructed across the river at Harrisburg. The structural work of this span is virtually completed, and concrete work is progressing rapidly. When finished the bridge will greatly help handling of increased railway traffic.

Gertrude J. Hearne, fast center forward of Philadelphia Yellows.

YESTERDAY BROUGHT THE FIRST TOUCH of snow and Christmas greens to the city. Miss Cora Lafetina, a prospective purchaser, is pictured above with a bunch of the Yuletide decorations at Twelfth and Race streets.

GOT BY HIM. Smith, of U. S. S. Relief, missing forward pass during thrilling game with U. S. S. Wright at the Navy Yard yesterday. The Relief won, 7 to 0.

THE DUTCH CHORUS in West Philadelphia High production, given by the Students' Association, tomorrow and Saturday evenings. In the group are: Mildred Weisel, Winifred Fieker, Gladys Park, Joyce Lowry, Katharine Ruth, Grace Johnson and Martha Sharpless. On the right, Phoebe Lees in allegorical tableau.

EVERY DAY IS "MILK" DAY for children of the Blaine School, who now drink 400 bottles of milk a day, paying for it themselves. Edith Horovitz, Minnie Rothstein, Hortense Magill, Gertrude Barby, Beatrice Roseman and Sol Golden, in "Better Health" pageant, produced by pupils of the school.

AT HARRISBURG CONVENTION. Mrs. E. A. Ambrose, Coatesville; Mrs. L. F. Lambert, chairman of Valley Township, and W. I. Zyner, East Greenville, delegates of Pennsylvania League of Women Voters.

"BESSIE" GOT THE FIRST DRINK from the new memorial fountain for horses unveiled at Front and Erie avenue.

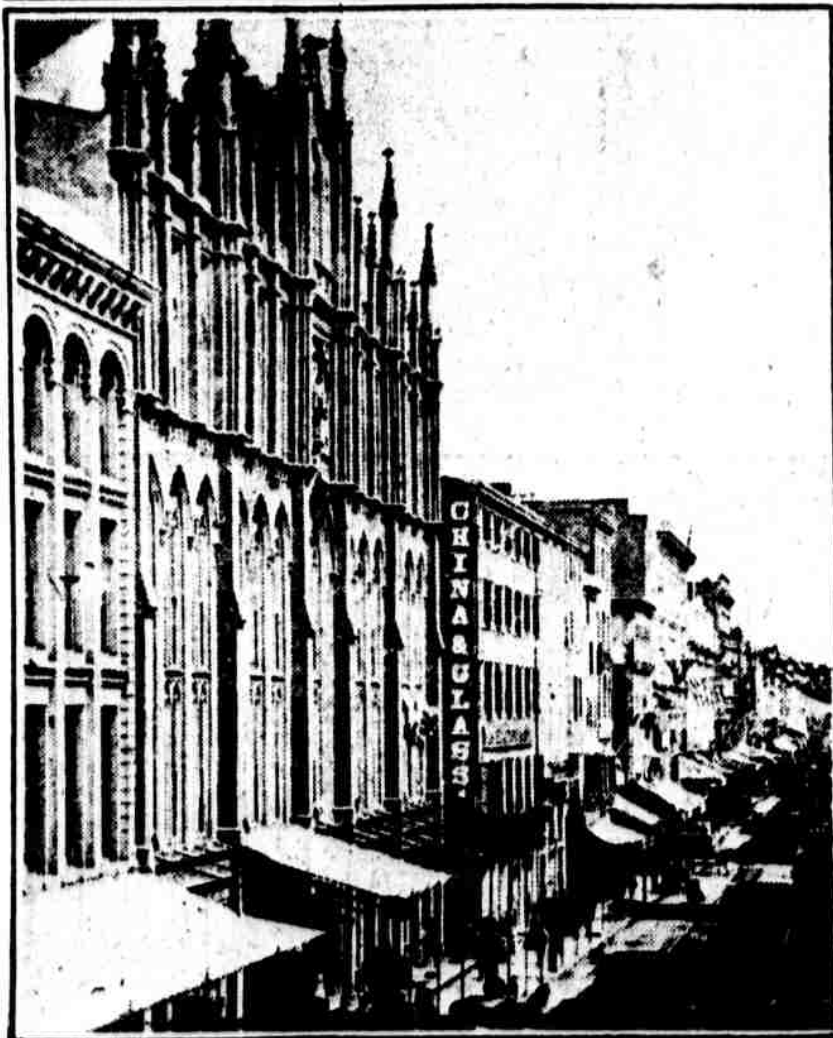

Miss Marion Steelman, "Miss Ocean City" in recent pageant, reported engaged.

THIS BIG GANDER is due to grace somebody's dinner table Thanksgiving Day.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

AWNINGS PROTECTED PEDESTRIANS from the sun along Chestnut street in 1870. A view of that thoroughfare, looking east from Eighth street, showing the old Masonic Temple. Please send us your old Philadelphia photographs.

Governor Parker, Louisiana, asks Federal aid to curb K. K. K.

THEY'RE OFF. The start of a pogo race at Cleveland, recently, in front of the American Legion headquarters on Euclid avenue. The fair pogoists give us an idea as to the proper pogo costume to be worn at such events.

Attorney General Coo, Louisiana, endeavors to curb K. K. K. activities.

Miss Gertrude Porter takes part in West Philadelphia High dramatics.

IN FRENCH PLAYLET. Miss V. Villone as the "Countess," and Miss R. Fairvire as the "Maid," to appear tonight in skit for the benefit of the French Church, 2130 De Lancey street.

Professor Albert Einstein awarded Nobel prize in physics.

FISH DEALER WEIGHING BIG COD, now being caught in great numbers.

DR. C. G. ABBOTT, Smithsonian Institution, measures heat of sun and stars.

